

Misprints in the Michigan ECPE (C2) Practice tests - Teacher's book

Practice test 3, GCVR, question 138, p.64 reads as follows:

138. The repayments will be ..... over 36 months to make it possible for the debtor to manage them.

- a. staggered
- b. stumbled
- c. meandered
- d. toddled

Practice test 3, GCVR, question 158, p.67:

The justification for q. 158 stretches over to “they turned on the native species of bird and rodent, severely reducing their numbers.”

Practice test 7, GCVR, question 111, p.142 reads as follows:

111. As a physician, he has ..... manner which gives his patients confidence in him and doesn't confuse them.

- a. a carefree
- b. a mainstream
- c. an open-minded
- d. a straightforward

Practice test 8, GCVR, question 157, p.167:

The justification for q. 157 stretches over to “just seemed to confirm this theory.”

Practice test 9, GCVR, question 130, p.183:

The correct answer is c.

Practice test 9, GCVR, question 169, p.189:

The justification for q. 169 stretches over to “capable even of drawing its fuel from the air.”

Practice test 11, GCVR, question 160, p.227 reads as follows:

160. What does this refer to in the final sentence of the fourth paragraph?

- a. indigestible bound niacin
- b. the vitamin B3
- c. the flavor lime imparted
- d. the conversion to nutritionally available niacin

Practice test 12, GCVR, question 66, p.238 reads as follows:

“Go on your own. I didn't take the day off ..... take you shopping!”

- a. so much I could
- b. that I could
- c. that I could not
- d. so that I could

Practice test 12, GCVR, question 154, p.246:

The justification in the third paragraph for q. 152 is actually the one for q. 154